KeyBank Foundation, through its civic programs, corporate contributions, and volunteerism supports organizations that foster economic self-sufficiency, principally where KeyBank operates.

KeyBank Foundation is a nonprofit charitable foundation, funded by KeyCorp. Founded in 1969 as Society Foundation, we became known as Key Foundation in 1996 and KeyBank Foundation in 2009.

As a corporate neighbor, we advance economic self-sufficiency through our funding priorities, which help communities and individuals prosper:

- Financial Education – Fostering effective financial management and understanding of financial services and tools
- Workforce Development – Providing training and placement for people to access job opportunities
- Diversity – Promoting inclusive environments by employing systemic changes to improve the access of individuals of diverse backgrounds

- Grants – Supporting programs fostering economic self-sufficiency at many types of nonprofit organizations
- Sponsorships – Partnering with nonprofit organizations on community events
- Matching Gifts – Matching employee donations to qualifying organizations
- Community Leadership Gifts – Providing gifts to charitable organizations on whose board an employee serves
- Volunteers – Helping nonprofit organizations with projects through Neighbors Make a Difference Day or other volunteer support

- 2010: $18.1 million
- 2009: $18.1 million

KeyBank Foundation cannot fund every worthwhile endeavor. In general, we do not make the following types of grants:

- Grants outside of the following states in which we have retail operations: Alaska, Colorado, Idaho, Indiana, Kentucky, Maine, Michigan, New York, Ohio, Oregon, Utah, Vermont, and Washington
- Grants to individuals
- Grants for memberships
